Summer Acting Intensives

All Classes taught by Founding Artistic Director Jennifer McCray Rincon.
Yale University BA Theatre Studies, Yale School of Drama MFA Directing.

Realism: The Works of Anton Chekhov and Tennessee Williams

June 22 - July 3 | Mondays - Fridays from 6 - 9 p.m. | Performance July 18th

This class will focus on the work of Anton Chekhov and Tennessee Williams and the study of The Five Questions. Each Actor will work on two scenes, one from Chekhov and one from Tennessee Williams.

Shakespeare Scene Study

July 5 - 17 | Mondays - Fridays from 6 - 9 p.m. | Performs August 1st

This class will focus on text analysis, scansion, and "articulated thought" in Shakespeare's plays. The textbook for this class is Playing Shakespeare by John Barton. All students will work on soliloquies and sonnets initially, before moving into scene study from the Shakespeare canon.

Audition Intensive and Self-Tapes

July 20 - 24 | 1 - 4 p.m. | Filming July 25 and 26

This intensive will focus on how to make auditions 'acting' as opposed to 'result-oriented performance'. At the end of the intensive, all actors will have the opportunity to create self-tapes filmed by professional videographer Scott Colby.

All classes will be held at the International School of Denver
458 Uinta Way, Denver 80230
